Positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac the living here is easy. The location is close to everything including bus transport and the Rothwell train station. Investors will appreciate the low vacancy rates in the area and strong rental returns. The home is in a great condition as is but there is room for a new owner to modernise and put their own stamp on it. Homes in this condition and location are rare, especially with 2 bathrooms. Call to inspect before it is too late
