Over 50's Village – Great Lifestyle – Great Unit

Located in the popular Peninsula Garden Retirement Village this villa offers huge advantages for those looking to make the most of life. The villa is freehold (meaning no exit fees – you own the land and unit) and the village has a lovely community feel with residents looking out for one another. Peninsula Gardens really feels like a lifestyle resort – there are ample activities and adventures on offer.

If you're a retiree or looking to slow down your needs can be fulfilled here and you can live the life you want to enjoy. Living here can enhance the interest and hobbies you already have and give you the chance to develop new ones. All too often we hear "We waited too long. If we had of known what kind of lifestyle this was we would've made the move sooner".

The villas and townhouses in the complex (of which there are 104 in total) are set up for independent living and you can come and go as you like. Think of it like your own home in a supportive and secure environment. Your family and friends are also welcome. The village is such that you have the freedom to enjoy your own interests or community activities when it suits – be as involved as you want.

Peninsula Gardens is a freehold retirement village that is pet friendly and offers a multitude of facilities & activities - indoor & outdoor lawn bowls, community hall for concerts and functions, solar heated swimming pool, library, computer & internet access, cards, scrabble, darts, gym, village bus, workshop, hairdresser, snooker room, movies, table tennis, boat & caravan parking and Friday night dinners just to name a few.

This villa is neat and tidy and the owners have loved living here for more than 20 years. The time has come now to start enjoying the next phase of life offering a new owner the opportunity to become part of this vibrant community.
