Impressive! Fully Renovated Home with Granny Flat

This impressive home has been a labour of love for the current owner who has meticulously renovated the home from top to bottom. The quality here is outstanding and every little piece of the puzzle has been thought through. This is not a cheap reno and flick, this one has been renovated over time for the current owners to live in and enjoy with no thoughts of selling. Due to a change in circumstances the time has come to move on, offering a new buyer the opportunity to reap the benefits of the hard work undertaken. The home oozes a relaxed coastal charm and a stunning combination of modern living with old world charm.

The home sits towards the front of a 607sqm block with good side access, brings the boat and caravan and there is even room for a pool if desired. Best of all, this one is perfect for those looking for dual living. At the back of the home is a 1-bedroom granny flat with its own entrance. Bring along the extended family, work from home or make the most of the extra income.

The location is central to schools (Primary, Secondary, Private & Public), shopping, transport (rail & bus), medical facilities and sporting complexes. For city commuters the access to the Houghton Highway is close by and the airport is 20 minutes away. The beach and waterfront parklands are a few minutes' drive away (less than 2km).

You will be hard pressed to find a better renovation than this one. There is a huge list of inclusions on offer. The home boasts:
